

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Governor

INDIANA STATE LIBRARY
140 North Senate Avenue
Indianapolis, IN 46204
Phone: (317) 232-3675
Fax: (317) 232-3728
TDD: (317) 232-7763

Indiana Higher Education Courses Meeting
The Indiana Library and Historical Board's Public Librarian Certification Requirements
For Level 6 Certificate

IU=Indiana University, BSU=Ball State University, ISU=Indiana State University, IVY=Ivy Tech State College

Some courses may be offered via Internet or other distance education platforms. Contact the institution for details.

Indiana University is the only provider of an ALA-accredited MLS/MIS in Indiana (500 level courses).

The Indiana State Library encourages any person who anticipates seeking higher levels of certification in the future begin with the courses required for a Level 5 certificate, and, for the same reason, strongly encourage every person seeking certification complete a course from the Public Library Management list.

The following list of undergraduate courses in Library Science are approved courses for the Level 6 Certificate applicant may use to meet the introductory library education requirement.

IU	-	L301	Materials Selection and Use in Small Public Libraries
IU	-	L302	Reference Sources & Services in Small Public Libraries
IU	-	L305	Management of Small Public Libraries
BSU	-	EDLIB133	Information Resources in Libraries
BSU	-	EDLIB280	School Media Center and Library Administration
BSU	-	EDLIB333	Information Resources in Libraries
BSU	-	EDLIB380	School Media Center and Library Administration
BSU	-	EDLIB460	Selection of Library Materials
IVY	-	LIBR101	Introduction to Libraries and Library Services
IVY	-	LIBR102	Introduction to Reference Sources and Services
IVY	-	LIBR103	Introduction to Libraries Public Services
IVY	-	LIBR104	Introduction to Technical Services
IVY	-	LIBR201	Cataloging and Classification
IVY	-	LIBR202	Introduction to Electronic Resources and Online Searching
IVY	-	LIBR 203	Library Services for Children
IVY	-	LIBR204	Library Media Center Operations & Services
IVY	-	LIBR205	Library/Media Materials & Equipment
IVY	-	LIBR206	Library Assistant Practicum

Updated 10/08