

Indiana Library Federation Conferences/Workshops – please also see ALA

Reference Division 2008 Annual Conference (3 LEUs maximum)

- County History Book Projects: An Opportunity for Local Libraries
- Something for Everyone: Genealogical Reference Services in the 21st Century
- Digital Projects: Making It All Happen

Beyond the Walls: Small and Medium Sized Libraries Reach Out 2008 Conference

- August 21 Full Day Conference (maximum 6 LEUs)
- August 22 Half Day Post-Conference (maximum 2 LEUs)

The following courses have been approved as Technology Library Education Units:

- Conference: WiFi and Other Computer Security Policies (1 LEU)
- Conference: New Developments in Technology (1 LEU)
- Conference: How to Successfully Utilize Podcasts in your Library (1 LEU)
- Conference: Blogs and Wikis? (1 LEU)
- Post-Conference: The Open Source Option (2 LEUs)

Building Blocks for the Future: Small and Medium Sized Libraries 2009 Conference (LEUs listed with ILF)

Children's and Young People's Division 2008

- September 21 – (maximum 4 LEUs)
- September 22 – (maximum 5 LEUs)

The following sessions have been approved as Technology Library Education Units:

- Serving Teens Outside the Library: MySpace (1 LEU)
- Library 2.0 Jam Session for Youth Librarians (1 LEU)

2009 CYPD Conference (LEUs listed with ILF)

Survivor: Redefining Literacy 2.0 with Author and Educator David Warlick (6 LEUs)